We are excited about the events that are taking place in the Dominican Republic. A few months ago a man by the name of Hector Quezada, who lives in Valdosta, Georgia, contacted me. Hector was born and raised in the Dominican Republic. After hearing of the current location of our two churches, Hector began to get excited. I told him our plan was to buy a piece of property around San Juan and build a Church and mission house to use as a base for the Mission work. Hector began to rub his arms and say, "I feel God has sent me here. I have been praying that someone would build a church on some property that I have in the Dominican."

Hector owns property about three miles from San Juan in a small village called Lavapie. He has agreed to give us enough land to build a church and if we desire more property to build a mission house. He will make it available to us at a very low price. Hector has already helped us ship over several items that we will need to build churches in the Dominican including; a welding machine, a generator, a cement mixer, scaffolding and many power and hand tools. These items are being stored at Hectors house in San Juan. We are flying over to the Dominican with Hector very soon to sign papers on the property and make a list of material that we will need to start a foundation for the Church. Praise God!!!

The people of Lavapie walk to the river to get their water so we will probably need to drill a well in this village. We will be finding out the cost of installing a well in Lavapie.

While we are in the Dominican we will also try to finish up the paperwork to apply for non-profit status in the Dominican. Please pray that this can be accomplished quickly. This will cost about $850.00

Bro. Darrell Wilkinson has stepped down as a board member of Harvest Season Ministries . We are thankful for the vision that Bro. Darrell had and we will continue to build upon the foundation that he has laid.

We are thankful to have Bro. Doug Padgett as our newest Board Member. Bro. Doug has accepted the position of Secretary/Treasurer.

We are thankful for the support that has been received in the past year. With your support Harvest Season has been able to support Bro. Narciso, the Pastor of El Pinal. Bro. Narciso travels several times a month by mule to Rancho Viejo and holds services in the Church that Harvest Season has in the mountains.

Please continue to pray for Harvest Season Ministries. We are praying that in 2015 there will be many people in the Dominican saved.

Bro. Steve Gentry
